ASSOCIATION OF PROVINCIAL BURSARS

The association is for Religious Bursars and is:

- a) To facilitate co-operation, collaboration and communication between the members on matters of mutual interest;
- b) To deepen the understanding of members, and other interested persons, in the theoretical and practical aspects of the stewardship of temporal goods by, and within, religious orders and the compliance of religious orders with their obligations under UK law and relevant ecclesiastical law.

To further the objects of the Association, APB organises meetings, seminars and webinars on the spiritual and temporal aspects of the members' ministries and provides and disseminates information to members to enable them to better fulfil their stewardship. APB itself does not offer advice but helps members to find appropriate sources of professional help.

FRIENDS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Friends of the Association of Provincial Bursars are persons or companies working as professional advisers in relevant sectors who wish to be involved with and support the Association. Details of Friends are shared with APB full and associate members.

MEMBERSHIP FEE

The fee for Friend membership is currently £100 per annum per person and runs for a calendar year from 1 January – 31 December.

FRIENDS POLICY

Friends may:

- be asked to provide some news and briefings for the members
- be asked to host webinars/seminars of interest to the members
- be asked to contribute to "A question from a member"
- be invited to attend the APB Annual Conference Market Place (subject to availability)
- be able to speak informally to the members at the APB Conference

Notes:

1. The Executive Committee and the members of APB are very grateful indeed for the support of the Friends. However, for data protection purposes, the Friends are not given access to the Full and Associate members' contact details.
2. The APB Conference is always extremely popular with the members and we are always oversubscribed, so for this reason, sadly, we are not able to invite Friends to attend the annual or other conferences as ordinary delegates; Friends are invited to attend the Market Place or as guest speakers.
